

Disability Services

Wake Forest University is an equal access institution which admits qualified applicants without regard to disability. When a student with a disability is admitted, the University seeks to accommodate those needs that are determined to be reasonable and that do not compromise the integrity of the curriculum.

If you are a disabled student and require accommodations for your disability, please contact one of the following individuals, depending on the nature of the accommodation requested:

Regarding medical or mobility issues:

Cecil D. Price, M.D.
Student Health Service
P.O. Box 7386
Winston-Salem, NC 27109
price@wfu.edu
336-758-5218

Regarding learning issues:

Van D. Westervelt, Ph.D.
Learning Assistance Center
P.O. Box 7283
Winston-Salem, NC 27109
westervd@wfu.edu
336-758-5929

Documentation is due no later than July 21, 2009, for decisions regarding the fall semester. The information that you send to us will be treated confidentially and will be shared with other administrators and faculty members only to the extent necessary to reach decisions and take actions on requests for accommodations.

Please make an appointment at the Learning Assistance Center once you arrive on campus. Additional information on disability services is available at <http://www.wfu.edu/lac/>
